2023 SCHEDULE

ON THE COVER:

The 2023 Houston Astros, the reigning World Series Champions, are led by Manager Dusty Baker, who's guided the club to three postseason berths in his three years at the helm. Overall, the Astros have made the postseason in a club record six consecutive seasons, and have played in the World Series in four of the last six seasons, winning twice (2017, 2022).

Baker, who enters the season ranking ninth all-time in Major League history in managerial wins, also ranks fourth all-time in postseason managerial wins (51), including a 28-14 (.667) record in the postseason with the Astros. By virtue of the Astros winning 105 games last season, Baker became just the fourth manager in MLB history to win 100 games in a single season in both leagues (also, Sparky Anderson, Whitey Herzog and Tony LaRussa). A steadying presence for the Astros since his arrival, Baker is making his second straight appearance on the club's Media Guide.

Second baseman Jose Altuve, returns to the Astros Media Guide cover for the ninth time in his career (also, 2013, 2015-19, 2021-23) and the third consecutive. Altuve is coming off his eighth career All-Star season, which is a franchise record, topping Hall of Famer Craig Biggio (seven selections).

Perennial MVP contender and the Astros third baseman Alex Bregman is making his third appearance on the cover (also, 2019, 2021), while left fielder Yordan Alvarez returns for his second (also, 2020).

Two breakout stars from the 2022 season will be making their debuts on the Astros Media Guide cover in shortstop Jeremy Peña and starting pitcher Framber Valdez. Peña had a magical rookie season in 2022, which culminated in him earning the MVP of the American League Championship Series and the World Series. Valdez also had a stellar 2022 season, in which he served as the Astros Opening Day starter, was the winning pitcher in the All-Star Game and starred in an undefeated postseason.

OVERVIEW

® HOUSTON ★ASTROS GOLDEN

The Astros Foundation and Community Relations team manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs that focus on supporting youth baseball and softball, honoring members of our nation's military and veterans, aiding in the fight against childhood cancer, and helping address pervasive issues in our society such as homelessness and domestic violence. These efforts are an investment in the Houston community and speak to a culture of giving back that touches every facet of the Astros organization.

2022, the first full season under the leadership of Paula Harris, Executive Director, Astros Foundation and Senior VP of Community Affairs was a very successful one for the Foundation, as $5.3 million was donated to community programs. The Astros also embraced the community of Uvalde, Texas, after the shooting at Robb Elementary School, engaging in community activities, having a Uvalde Strong Day at Minute Maid Park, making 2023 Astros Caravan stops in the community and making Uvalde Little League a Community Leader Little League.

A cornerstone of the Astros Foundation is the Astros Youth Academy, which offers local youth an opportunity to learn about and experience the game of baseball and softball. In 2022, the Astros Youth Academy softball team made it to the finals of the MLB Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities World Series Championship.

Each year, the Astros Foundation continues to grow the Community Leaders program, which provides young baseball and softball players with the environment and resources they need to develop mentally and physically.

Through fundraising and volunteer efforts, the Astros Foundation supports many local non-profits, dedicating thousands of volunteer hours each year.

In 2017, the Astros Foundation was awarded the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest recognition of the charitable efforts of its clubs, for the Astros Community Leaders program.

To learn more about the Astros Foundation and community programs, please visit www.astros.com/community or www.astros.com/foundation. Also follow along on social media, on Twitter: @AstrosCares, Facebook: Facebook.com/AstrosFoundation and Instagram: astrosfoundation.

The Astros Foundation hosts several marquee events throughout the year, including the Diamond Dreams Gala, Share2Care 50/50 Raffle, The MVP Series, the Astros Foundation/AT&T SportsNet Charity Broadcast and more.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

Developed by Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, the Community Leaders program seeks to provide the next generation of young athletes with the environment and resources they need to develop physically and mentally. Baseball and softball teach young players the importance of teamwork, perseverance and commitment, principles that will serve them not only on the field, but throughout their lives.

The Community Leaders program has grown significantly since its inception in 2013. Through the help of its generous corporate partners, the program now impacts thousands of children and their youth baseball and softball leagues throughout the city, providing additional resources, instructional player and coaching clinics, infrastructure enhancements, uniforms and equipment. The Community Leaders program has expanded its footprint and scope to include established community centers and youth programs throughout Greater Houston, and down to Uvalde, Texas, and provides tens of thousands of uniforms and equipment to children at no cost.

For its efforts, the Community Leaders program received the 2017 Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest honor for the charitable efforts of its clubs.

ASTROS FOUNDATION IN 2022

The 2022 season, the first full year under the leadership of Paula Harris, Executive Director, Astros Foundation and Senior VP of Community Affairs was a very successful one for the Foundation, as $5.3 million was donated to community programs.

The Astros also embraced the community of Uvalde, Texas, after the shooting at Robb Elementary School, engaging in community activities, having a Uvalde Strong Day at Minute Maid Park, making 2023 Astros Caravan stops in the community and making Uvalde Little League a Community Leader Little League.

The Astros Foundation participated in granting the 10,000th wish for the Make-a-Wish Foundation Texas Gulf Coast and Louisiana on Oct. 4 at the Astros game against the Philadelphia Phillies. The wish kids ranged in ages from 12 to 18 and signed a one-day contract, were presented with custom Astros jerseys and special goodies, and enjoy the opportunity of a lifetime to meet players during batting practice prior to the start of the game, among many other special activities.

The 2022 Astros Foundation Charity Game, presented by AT&T SportsNet was once again a successful event for the Astros, as proceeds from the telecast benefitted the Astros Foundation, the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Houston, Kids' Meals and the Uvalde Little League.

The Astros Foundation also put on the Diamond Dreams Gala presented by Chevron in November of 2022, a wonderful night of fundraising for the Astros Foundation and New Hope Housing, an organization combatting homelessness by providing housing and support services for those in need. The event featured a fantastic dinner, live and silent auctions and a concert by Boyz II Men.

The Astros Foundation could not have had the success they did in 2022 without World Champion Volunteers, a group of over 2,800 that served over 19,000 hours at 626 events for over 94 partner organizations. The Astros volunteers were named the 2022 Volunteer Group of the Year by Kids Meals.

Additionally, in February of 2023, the Astros Foundation and Minute Maid Park hosted the first Cactus Jack HBCU Classic, a round-robin collegiate baseball tournament featuring six Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs).

JIM CRANE

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

On Nov. 17, 2011, Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, marking the beginning of a new era of Astros baseball.

As Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros in 2011 by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into action. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim's credentials made him the perfect choice to build a winning team both on and off the field in Houston.

From the start, Jim was clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Minute Maid Park.

In just six years, Jim Crane took the Astros from worst to first in spectacular fashion. Houston's farm system, which was ranked as one of the worst in baseball in 2011, recovered in a three-year span to be ranked as the best in baseball in 2014. Since then, that same farm system has produced multiple Major Leaguers and everyday players and has given the Astros the ability to pull off multiple trades, all signed off on by Crane, including the acquisitions of Justin Verlander in 2017, Gerrit Cole in 2018 and Zack Greinke in 2019.

Buoyed by promotions and acquisitions, the Major League club went from a 111-loss season in 2013 to ultimately winning its first World Series Championship in 2017. The club has continued to produce at the highest level, as the Astros posted 100-plus win seasons in five of the last six years (did not reach the mark in 2020 due to a shortened season because of the COVID-19 pandemic). Not only have the Astros reached the postseason each of the last six seasons, but they have advanced to the ALCS in all six of those years, becoming just the second team in MLB history to advance to six-straight LCS. In 2019, the Astros set a franchise record with 107 regular season wins and won the American League pennant. Last season in 2021, the Astros won their fourth American League West Division title and third American League pennant in five seasons. Overall, three of the club's four World Series trips, including the 2017 World Series Championship, have come under Crane's ownership.

In order to make the experience at Minute Maid Park one of the best in baseball, the Astros have made several largescale renovations to the ballpark under Jim's leadership. The multi-million-dollar investment in center field, the addition of the Astros Hall of Fame Alley and the renovations and enhancements to the ballpark's suites were the most recent innovative updates that showcase Jim's commitment to making Minute Maid Park a great destination for fans of all ages.

Jim recognized the need for a new Astros Spring Training facility and successfully moved the team to West Palm Beach in 2017, where players and fans now enjoy a first-class, state-of-the-art facility, Ballpark of the Palm Beaches. Through a partnership, Jim also purchased an office building five miles from the Spring Training facility and had it redeveloped into a Hilton Garden Inn branded hotel which serves the public as well as Astros players, staff and families.

He also successfully brokered the purchase of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks in 2015 and was closely involved with the acquisition of a Class A Advanced affiliate in the Carolina League in 2017. In 2019, that team had a new stadium built in Fayetteville, N.C., and a new nickname, Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Ballpark Digest recognized the Woodpeckers' brand with the Logo/Branding of the Year Award in 2019. Additionally, Jim continued to add to the Astros minor league system acquiring the Sugar Land Skeeters franchise to serve as the Astros Triple A affiliate prior to the 2021 season. In January of 2022, the Skeeters underwent a successful re-brand to the Sugar Land Space Cowboys.

Under Jim's leadership, the Astros have supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives, including MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities as well as MLB's Diversity Summit, a sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair. Houston has twice hosted the Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure, as well as the Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of top high school players in the country.

Passion for the Game

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the Cardinals' caring, family atmosphere and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. On Jan. 29, 2017, Jim was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his outstanding pitching career at the University of Central Missouri, his generous donations to UCM baseball and his successful efforts in rebuilding the Houston Astros franchise

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

Success in the Business World

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridian, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla., in 2010. In 2017, Jim ventured into the restaurant business and opened Osso & Kristalla and Potente named after his children. In 2018, he also took ownership of the Houston Open, the PGA TOUR tournament that was in danger of leaving the city. The tournament is operated under the Astros Golf Foundation transitioned to the newly renovated Memorial Park Golf Course in 2020.

Jim also acquired Davaco, a leader in high-volume remodels and technology deployments for global brands. He then started a software company, Modiant, as well as Crane Safety, a commercial safety supply company.

Stepping Up and Giving Back

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond. Since he took ownership of the club, the Astros Foundation has donated and invested over $50 million into the Houston community and beyond.

In 2021, the Astros Foundation led the way in the fight against COVID-19, partnering with the City of Houston to use Minute Maid Park as both a COVID-19 testing site and as a vaccination site.

In April of 2020, during the early stages of the pandemic, Jim stepped up to connect the Astros Foundation with Crane Worldwide Logistics, which resulted in millions of medical supplies being delivered to Houston hospitals within the Texas Medical Center. The goal of the partnership was to provide funding, logistics and transportation support for much-needed medical supplies and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) being used by healthcare professionals to treat COVID-19 patients.

In 2020, Jim also connected the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide with Astros players Carlos Correa and Martin Maldonado plus other MLB players from Puerto Rico to assist with delivering medical supplies to the island during the COVID-19 pandemic. In that endeavor, the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide covered 100% of the freight and transportation costs and also coordinated the logistics to get those much-needed medical supplies to Puerto Rico.

Crane and the Astros Foundation are the first to jump to action after natural disasters in the area, holding supply drives at Minute Maid Park to support relief efforts for communities impacted by storms. Most recently, drives were held to collect supplies for communities in Louisiana impacted by Hurricane Laura in 2020 and Hurricane Ida in 2021. In 2021, the Astros Foundation and Alex Bregman held a water distribution drive to support local Houstonians during recovery from Winter Storm Uri.

In the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Harvey in 2017, Jim and the Astros ownership group were among the first to pledge $4 million to relief efforts. Jim also facilitated the shipment of more than 240,000 pounds of disaster relief supplies to Puerto Rico, where he was instrumental in transporting families of Astros and other MLB players, as well as hospitalized patients in critical condition, to safety.

In 2018, when the City of Houston was in danger of losing the Houston Open golf tournament, Jim helped establish the Astros Golf Foundation to ensure that the historic, PGA Tour tournament would remain in Houston. As a result, since 2019, the Houston Open has been presented by the Astros Golf Foundation and has had a tremendous impact on the Houston community, becoming the single-biggest fundraiser for the Astros Foundation. The Astros Golf Foundation spearheaded a $34 million renovation to Memorial Park Golf Course, which now plays host to the Houston Open. One of the key goals of the Astros Golf Foundation is to provide much-needed resources and funds to the citizens and community of Houston through park improvements, charitable fundraising and investing in youth programs.

Jim is committed to providing local children the opportunities he feels baseball afforded him in his youth. One of his first initiatives after purchasing the Astros was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which won MLB's prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in 2017. As part of the program, a multi-million-dollar partnership was formed with the City of Houston's Parks and Recreation Department and included participation from several corporate partners, whose financial donations supported the field refurbishments, year-round maintenance, league programming and uniforms. Now, tens of thousands of young athletes receive free uniforms, equipment, tickets to Astros games and professional instruction through the Community Leaders program. The parents, coaches and league participants also benefit from different types of clinics through the Community Leaders program, attending clinics on coaching, groundskeeping, nutrition, education, and much more.

"Baseball was very important to my development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities that I had through baseball."

Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. In 2019, Jim was recognized as the MD Anderson "Living Legend" and was also presented with the Ben Taub Humanitarian Award at their Jubilee of Caring event. He also won the 2019 Houston Sports Award Executive of the Year award. In May of 2018, he received the Public Service Award from the American Leadership Forum and was also inducted into the St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame where he received the August A. Busch, Jr. Award. On November 1, 2018, Jim was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in December 2018 received the Jack Buck Award from the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis, Missouri.

Seven players drafted in that span would earn All-Star status, including lan Desmond, Stephen Strasburg and Ryan Zimmerman.

Brown's career also includes an eight-year stint with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he served as their area scouting supervisor and east coast cross checker.

Brown also played professionally for three seasons as an outfielder in the Phillies minor league system after being drafted out of Seton Hall University in the 35th round of the 1989 June Draft. In three minor league seasons as an outfielder, Brown hit .262 in 280 games with 82 stolen bases, advancing as high at Double-A in his final season in 1991.

En route to the title, Baker's Astros posted one of the most dominant seasons in recent history. After leading the American League with 106 wins, the Astros went 11-2 in the postseason, which included a combined 7-0 record in the ALDS (3-0 vs. Seattle) and ALCS (4-0 vs. New York)., before defeating the Phillies in the World Series in six games. The title was Baker's first as a manager and second overall as he was a part of the championship 1981 Dodgers club as a player. Additionally, Baker has now won three pennants as a manager in his career, including in back-to-back seasons as the Astros skipper (2021-22).

Baker also reached another historic milestone in 2022 when he became just the 12th manager and first African-American manager ever to reach 2,000 career wins with a 4-0 victory over the Mariners on May 3. The future Hall of Famer enters the 2023 season with 2,093 career wins, which ranks ninth all-time. Baker's win percentage (.667) in the postseason is the best in club history. Baker's Astros are also 230-154 (.599) in the regular season, giving him the best winning percentage of any manager in franchise history (min. three seasons).

The 2021 season included multiple highlights and historical milestones for Baker. Most importantly, he led the Astros the AL pennant, marking the club's fourth trip to the Fall Classic in franchise history. It also marked the second time that Baker had led his club to the World Series.

Along the way, the Astros captured the AL West Division title, making Baker the first manager in Major League history to win division titles with five different clubs. In the postseason, the Astros defeated the White Sox in the ALDS in four games and then the Red Sox in the ALCS, rallying from 2-1 deficit to capture the pennant in six games. For his efforts, Baseball America named Baker as their 2021 Manager of the Year.

Baker's first season in Houston, 2020, was a memorable one, as his Astros had an outstanding postseason run, falling just one win shy of a return to the World Series. The Astros were 8-5 in the postseason with series wins in the Wild Card round at Minnesota and in the ALDS vs. Oakland. Making the club's performance even more impressive was that the club had to overcome a great deal of injuries to key players. The Astros were forced to use a club-record and MLB-high 15 rookie pitchers, including 10 that made their MLB debuts in 2020.

○ HOUSTON * ASTROS

When the Astros qualified for the playoffs, Baker once again made history, becoming the first manager in MLB history to take five different teams to the postseason. Baker also managed the Giants (1997, 2000, 2002), Cubs (2003), Reds (2010, 2012-13) and Nationals (2016-17) into the playoffs.

A three-time BBWAA NL Manager of the Year (1993, 1997, 2000), Houston is Baker's fifth managerial stop. His last four were with San Francisco (1993-2002), Chicago (2003-06), Cincinnati (2008-13) and Washington (2016-17).

An All-Star, Gold Glove, Silver Slugger, and World Series winner during his 19-year playing career, Baker has produced 12 postseason teams during his 25-year managerial career, including nine division championships (San Francisco, 1997 & 2000; Chicago, 2003; Cincinnati, 2010 & 2012; Washington, 2016-17, Houston 2021-22, and three wild card appearances (San Francisco, 2002; Cincinnati, 2013; Houston, 2020).

Baker has World Series experience as a player, coach and manager, having played in the Fall Classic in 1977, 1978 and 1981 with the Dodgers. As a manager, prior to 2022, Baker guided both the 2002 Giants and 2021 Astros to the World Series and was a coach on the 1989 NL Champion Giants club.

Baker finished his Giants managerial career with 840 victories in San Francisco, which ranks third in club history. Following his stint with the Giants, Baker served as Cubs manager for four seasons (2003-06), where he enjoyed early success as well. Despite inheriting a club that had finished with a 67-95 record the previous season, Baker guided the Cubs to the NL Central Division title in 2003 with an 88-74 mark. That club would ultimately fall just one win shy of reaching the World Series, falling to the Marlins in the NLCS in seven games. His 2003-04 Cubs teams were the first to post back-to-back winning records in Chicago since 1971-72.

A successful six-year stint in Cincinnati would follow, as he guided the Reds to three playoff appearances, including two NL Central Division titles. As a manager of the Nationals (2016-17), Baker won back-to-back NL East titles in both seasons at the helm.

Baker is also one of only two individuals in MLB history to produce at least 1,800 hits as a player and win at least 1,800 games as a manager, joining Joe Torre on that list. A seven-time All-Star (twice as a player: 1981 & 1982; three times as a member of the coaching staff: 1994, 1997 & 2001; twice as manager: 2003 & 2022), Baker has had success at every managerial stop in his career. His teams have finished first or second 17 times in his 25 years, and Baker is just the seventh manager in MLB history to win 90-plus games on 12-or-more occasions (source: Elias).

As a player, Baker tallied 242 home runs and 1,031 RBI in his 19-year career (2,039 games) that included stops with the Atlanta Braves (1968-1975), Los Angeles Dodgers (1976-1983), San Francisco Giants (1984) and Oakland Athletics (1985-1986). Baker finished in the top 10 in MVP voting twice (1980 & 1981), and won two Silver Slugger Awards. a Gold Glove, and earned two All-Star selections.

Early in his career, as an everyday player with the Braves in the 1970s, Baker found himself hitting fifth, behind Hank Aaron, during the historic 1973 and 1974 seasons as Aaron closed in on the the all-time HR record.

Baker played in four postseasons (1977, 1978, 1981 & 1983), which included three World Series (1977, 1978, 1981). He earned the NLCS MVP award with the Dodgers in 1977, hitting .357 with a .438 on-base percentage an .837 slugging percentage, two home runs and eight RBI in four games against Philadelphia), and a World Series ring, playing left field for the 1981 Dodgers.

Born Johnnie B. Baker Jr. on June 15, 1949 in Riverside, CA, "Dusty" Baker currently resides in California with his wife, Melissa, and has two children, Natosha and Darren. A 1967 graduate of Del Campo High School in Carmichael, Calif., Baker attended American River College in Sacramento, Calif. Baker's son, Darren, was selected by the Washington Nationals in the 2021 MLB Amateur Draft from the University of California (Berkley).

Resides: Jupiter, FL

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Miami Marlins (2010-13); Third Base Coach, New York Yankees (2015-17); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2018-present)

Joe Espada was named the Astros bench coach on Nov. 6, 2017.

The 2023 season is his sixth with the Astros and his 13th overall on a Major League coaching staff. In addition to his bench coach responsibilities, Espada also serves as infield coach and has mentored some of the game's biggest stars, including 2022 AL Gold Glove winner Jeremy Pena, who became the first rookie shortstop ever to win a Gold Glove. In 2021, both Carlos Correa and Yuli Gurriel earned Gold Glove Awards, while the Astros earned the Rawlings AL Team Gold Glove Award.

Additionally, under Espada's tutelage, the Astros have led the American League in fielding percentage in four of the last five seasons and have led the Majors in three of the last five seasons.

Prior to joining the Astros, Espada spent four seasons (2014-17) in the New York Yankees organization, first, as a professional scout in 2014, and then as third base coach from 2015-17. During his Yankees coaching tenure, the Yankees earned two playoff berths (2015 & 2017), advancing to the ALCS in 2017.

A native of Santurce, Puerto Rico, Espada attended the University of Mobile (Ala.), where he still owns the school's top two single-season batting averages (.468 in 1995 and .446 in 1996) and top overall career batting average of .442. Drafted in the second round in the 1996 MLB Amateur Draft by the Oakland Athletics, Espada enjoyed a 10-year playing career, playing in the Oakland (1996-2000), Florida (2001), Colorado (2001), Kansas City (2002), St. Louis (2003), Texas (2003), and Tampa Bay (2004) organizations.

After retiring as a player, Espada started his coaching career, which began with the Marlins in 2006. There, he coached from 2006-13, serving first as a hitting coach for Class A Greensboro (2006) and Class A Jupiter (2007). Next, he was the Marlins infield coordinator (2008-09) before joining the Major League club as third base coach from 2010-2013.

Espada is married to Dr. Pamela Espada and the couple has two daughters, Eliana Marie and Viviana Elena. During his off-seasons, Joe has given back to Puerto Rico both on and off the field. He managed in the Puerto Rican Winter League for Carolina (2014-15) and Manati (2012-13) and coached third base for Team Puerto Rico in the 2013 and 2017 World Baseball Classics. Active in the community both in Puerto Rico and in Houston, Espada has given countless clinics to youth baseball groups, including at the Astros Youth Academy. Espada has also been involved in various Houston charities, and enjoys spending time with his family.

With the departure of veteran pitching coach Brent Strom following the 2021 season, Josh Miller took on an expanded role as Astros pitching coach in 2022 and the results were historic. Houston's pitching staff led the American League in several key categories, including ERA (2.90), opponents batting average (.212) and WHIP (1.09). All three totals were the best in club history for a full, 162-game season. Additionally, the club's bullpen ERA of 2.80 was tops in the Majors and third-best in franchise history.

Pitching was the key to the Astros outstanding postseason run in 2022 as the staff posted a 2.29 ERA in 13 games overall and a minscule 0.83 ERA in the bullpen. Additionally, Astros pitchers had a .172 opponents average and an 0.95 WHIP in the postseason.

The 2023 season will be Miller's third as Major League Pitching Coach. Previously, he served as the Astros bullpen coach for two seasons (2019-20).

The 2023 season will also mark his 17th season with the Astros and his fourth at the Major League level. He also served as the Astros complex pitching coordinator for two seasons from 2016-17, overseeing the Astros pitching programs at their complex in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Miller began his coaching career in 2013 as a pitching coach at Rookie Level Greeneville, which followed a twoyear stint as a pro scout for the Astros. He next spent three total seasons as Greeneville's pitching coach, helping to lead the club to an Appalachian League Championship title in 2015.

A veteran of seven minor league seasons as a pitcher in the Phillies (2001-2003) and Astros (2005-08) organizations, Miller was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 32nd round of the June 2001 draft out of North Carolina State University. Houston's staff led the American League in several key categories, including ERA (2.90), opponents batting average (.212) and WHIP (1.09). All three totals were the best in club history for a full, 162-game season. Additionally, the club's bullpen ERA of 2.80 was tops in the Majors and third-best in franchise history.

Pitching was the key to the Astros outstanding postseason run in 2022 as the staff posted a 2.29 ERA in 13 games overall and a minscule 0.83 ERA in the bullpen. Additionally, Astros pitchers had a .172 opponents average and an 0.95 WHIP in the postseason.

Murphy's current stint with the big club is his first Major League coaching assignment. Prior to joining the Major League club, Murphy served as the Astros minor league pitching coordinator for the 2019-20 seasons. In 2020, as a result of the pandemic, Murphy worked with minor league pitchers at the Astros alternate training sites and then worked with the Instructional Camp in Florida in October.

Murphy began his coaching career with the Astros organization as pitching coach for Rookie Level Greeneville in 2016. He then served as pitching coach for Class A Short Season Tri-City (2017) and Double A Corpus Christi (2018), respectively. During his time in the minors, Murphy had the opportunity to work with current Astros pitchers Brandon Bielak, Luis Garcia, Cristian Javier and Framber Valdez.

Prior to joining the Astros, Murphy served stints as the pitching coach at Brown University, and co-manager and pitching coach for the Northwoods Collegiate League Battle Creek Bombers.

In 2013, Murphy was a volunteer assistant coach at Georgetown University, and also coached in the Cal Ripken Collegiate League with the Rockville Express. Murphy was a full-time coach at Roselle Catholic High School from 2010-11 and 2012-13, which included stints as the varsity pitching coach. He has also coached at the American Legion level (2011-12), and in 2012 was an assistant coach for the Middlesex Rays of the Atlantic Baseball Confederation Collegiate League.

Murphy graduated from Rutgers University in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in history. While at Rutgers, he was a pitcher on the baseball team for three years. Murphy received his MBA in management from Wagner College in Staten Island, N.Y., where he played first base during his final year of eligibility. Murphy graduated from Roselle Catholic High School in 2007.

In 2022, Omar López returned to his role as the Astros first base coach after filling in for Gary Pettis as the club's third base coach from September 2020 through the 2021 season while Pettis recovered from multiple myeloma.

The 2023 season is López'fourth on the Astros Major League staff, but his 25th season in the Astros organization. He joined the Astros Major League staff in 2020 after a successful two-year stint as manager of the Double-A Corpus Christi Hooks (2018-19). In 2018, López was named the Texas League Manager of the Year after guiding the Hooks to an 82-56 record and a spot in the postseason.

In 2023, Lopez will miss a portion of the Astros Spring Training camp while serving as the manager for Team Venezuela in the World Baseball Classic, whose roster will include Jose Altuve, Luis Garcia and several other star Major League players. His Venezuela club will hold their early workouts at the Astros Spring Training complex in West Palm Beach before departing for the start of the tournament. Lopez, who was born in Valencia, VZ, has some previous experience participating in the World Baseball Classic as he served as the quality control coach for Venezuela in the 2017 WBC.

Overall, Lopez spent 12 seasons managing in the Astros farm system. Prior to managing the Hooks, he had stints at Buies Creek (2017), Quad Cities (2013-14, 2016), Lancaster (2015), Greeneville (2011-12), the Gulf Coast League (2009-10) and the Venezuelan Summer League (2008). In 2010, López earned the Astros Player Development Man of the Year award, as he was credited with guiding the organization's Spanish-speaking prospects through their first year of professional baseball in the United States. Prior to starting his managerial career in 2008, López served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros Venezuelan program and was a full-time scout from 1999-2007. While in Venezuela, López was one of the scouts who recommended that the Astros sign Jose Altuve, who was a little-known, 16-year-old free agent at the time.

A native of Valencia, Venezuela, López played three seasons of minor league baseball with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998). He played his first professional season with Rookie Level Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. Prior to joining the Astros, Pettis spent eight seasons (2007-14) on the Major League coaching staff of the Texas Rangers, spending his last two seasons (2013-14) as their third base coach after spending six seasons (2007-12) as the club's first base coach. His Gold Gloves came in 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989 and 1990, which made him the fifth player in Major League history to win a Gold Glove with three different teams. Pettis hit .346 (9x26) for the Angels in the 1986 ALCS vs. Boston.

Pettis makes his offseason home in San Clemente, Calif., with his wife Peggy. The couple has two daughters, Paige and Shaye, and two sons, Kyler and Dante. Dante, who currently is a receiver in the NFL for the Chicago Bears, was a second-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 2018 after starring as a consensus All-American at the University of Washington. He owns the NCAA record for career punt return touchdowns with nine. Kyler is a model/actor, who appeared on the television soap opera Days of Our Lives for four years (2015-18), appearing in over 120 episodes.

NOTES

- After defecting from Cuba in 2016. Alvarez's journey took him first to the Dominican Republic, then to Haiti, where would eventually establish residency.
- While working to establish residency. Alvarez crossed paths with fellow Cuban Yuli Gurriel, who was also working to establish residency...Alvarez grew up idolizing Gurriel, who was a star in the Cuban league during Alvarez's childhood...the two would later become teammates and friends, sharing the same clubhouse with each other for Alvarez's first four professional seasons (2019-22).
- After establishing residency in Haiti, Alvarez signed his first professional contract with the Dodgers and their scouts Ismael Cruz and Mike Toscar.
- Spent less than two months in the Dodgers organization and did not play in a professional game with them before being acquired by Houston in exchange for reliever Josh Fields...Fields posted a 2.61 ERA in three seasons with Los Angeles while Alvarez blossomed into one of the top prospects in baseball before debuting in 2019...the Astros scouts credited with the identification of Alvarez as an amateur include Charlie Gonzalez and Oz Ocampo.
- Went six years, from the moment he defected from Cuba, until August of 2022, without seeing his father (Agustín Alvarez), mother (Mailyn Cadogan Reves) and little brother (Yonder), who's turning 16 in 2023... with the help of Astros Owner & Chairman Jim Crane. who worked with an immigration lawyer, the three secured visitor visas to eventually make it to the United States...the next step for the family is to apply for residency, with their goal being a permanent move to Florida, where Yordan makes his offseason home... despite being apart for six years. Yordan still talked to his parents daily by phone.
- Has had several eve-opening moments in his career. with perhaps the top regular season moment coming on Sept. 9, 2019, when he became the first Astro to hit a homer into the third deck at Minute Maid Park (off A's RHP Paul Blackburn)...that shot landed in section 337, row 1, seat 18, a seat location that no longer exists after the addition of the Michelob Ultra View Deck.

- Had a strong second full season in 2022, finishing the year as a 15-game winner, while making 28 starts...ranked tied for fourth in the AL in wins, ninth in opponent average (.222) and 10th in strikeouts per 9.0 (8.98)...finished the year on a career-long seven game winning streak.
- Tossed the eighth immaculate inning in franchise history on June 15, 2022, at TEX, striking out 1B Nathaniel Lowe, 2B Ezequiel Duran and 3B Brad Miller in the frame...later was joined in that game by RHP Phil Maton, who also tossed an immaculate inning in the 7th inning against those same three hitters...according to MLB.com's records, marked the first time in MLB history for a game to feature two immaculate innings.
- A POSTSEASON veteran after three MLB seasons. helped the Astros to the 2022 World Series title by tossing 5.0 scoreless innings in relief in the Astros 18-inning win in Game 3 of the ALDS at SEA...pitched the final 5.0 innings of the Astros win, allowing just two hits and no walks...became the second Astro to work 5.0 scoreless in relief in a postseason game, joining LHP Framber Valdez (Game 1 of the 2020 AL Wild Card Series at MIN)...Garcia was also just the second pitcher in postseason history to work 5.0-plus scoreless relief innings which all came in extras, joining RHP Yusmeiro Petit (6IP in Game 2 of the 2014 NLDS vs. SF).
- Named the Astros 2021 Rookie of the Year by the Houston BBWAA and finished second in the AL ROY voting, trailing only OF Randy Arozarena...led AL rookie pitchers in WAR (3.0), wins (11), innings (155.1) and strikeouts (167)...his strikeout total was the second-highest by a rookie in club history, trailing RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969).
- Had a breakout season in 2020 and ended up making his MLB debut with the Astros on Sept. 4, 2020 after never appearing in a game at the Double A or Triple A levels...would also make his postseason debut as the starting pitcher for the Astros in Game 5 of the 2020 ALCS vs. TB, throwing 2.0 scoreless innings...became the youngest pitcher in Astros history to start a potential elimination game in the postseason (23 years, 307 days old).

NOTES

- Was signed as a 20-year-old non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela on July 2, 2017...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Tom Shafer, Roman Ocumarez and David Brito.
- As an amateur in Venezuela and prior to signing with the Astros, had trouble finding baseball cleats in Venezuela for his size 12 feet...Garcia's mom, who is a social worker, had a friend with a connection to Major League Baseball and made the ask for new cleats on behalf of her son...her friend with the MLB connection happened to be the sister of Astros bullpen catcher Javier Bracamonte, who regularly sends equipment back to his native country of Venezuela...without knowing who they were for, Bracamonte provided the cleats, which eventually made it back to Garcia... finally in 2021, at some point during Garcia's rookie season. Bracamonte was surprised to find out that the kid from Venezuela who needed size 12 cleats was Garcia who was in his first full season with the Astros
- Is the third player in club history to wear the #77 after Pudge Rodriguez (2009) and Pedro Feliz (2010)... was assigned the number when he joined the club in midseason of 2020 and opted to keep it moving into the 2021 campaign...he has a special connection to the number, which was worn by him in photo ops on international signing day in 2017...the #77 signing day iersey was pulled randomly for photos by the Astros international staff.
 - Prior to it being outlawed this season, had one of the most unique windups in the Majors, which was a mix of rocking a baby and a salsa dance...Garcia does not have a strong origin story for his windup, instead saying he wanted a windup that he felt could be repeatable...it's so unique that it's been mimicked by all, from Major Leagues, including Shohei Ohtani, to little leaguers, including Spring Branch 9-year-old Charlie Strong, who started using Garcia's windup in his little league games...after a video of Charlie went viral, Luis insisted on hosting Charlie at Minute Maid Park, which happened on May 25, 2022...Charlie threw out a ceremonial first pitch that day, using the unique windup, with Luis serving as his catcher.
- Is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2023 season...this Spring Training will be his third with the Major League club.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter has gone 20-12 with a 3.05 ERA (103ER/304.1IP), with 123 walks and 378 strikeouts in 78 games (44 starts) in his three Major League seasons (2020-22) with the Astros.
- Has allowed a .178 (192x1077) opponent batting average in his three-year career...among pitchers to toss 300-plus innings over the 2020-22 seasons, Javier ranks first in the Majors in that category, almost 20 percentage points lower than secondplace Corbin Burnes (.195).
- Has been a strong POSTSEASON performer in his young career, posting a 4-1 record with a 2.20 ERA (8ER/32.2IP) with four holds in 14 appearances, including two starts...has allowed just 14 hits in his 32.2 innings of work for a .127 opponent average, while striking out 48 hitters.
- Was the starter in two combined no-hitters in 2022, which came on June 25 at NYY (7IP) and in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series at PHI (6IP)...became the first pitcher in Major League history to start two combined no-hitters in a career.
- During the no-hitter on June 25 at NYY, began a streak of striking out two-or-more batters in an inning for 13 consecutive innings over parts of three starts from June 25-July 6...became just the third player since 1961 to have a streak of 13+ innings, joining Corey Kluber (2014) and Aroldis Chapman (2020-21).
- Had an incredible 2022 season overall, posting the lowest opponent batting average in AL (170), which was 16 points lower than the second-place finisher and the eventual AL Cy Young winner RHP Justin Verlander (186)...also ranked second in K's per 9.0 (11.74) and fourth in WHIP (0.95) this season... including his two starts this postseason (11.1IP), finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts...allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.
- Had a strong sophomore season in 2021, working in the rotation (nine starts) and bullpen (27 apps.)... finished his season with a .186 opponent batting average, which ranked first in the AL (min. 90 IP), allowing just 67 hits in his 101.1 IP...held righties to a .155 mark (33x213) and a .587 OPS...also owned the second-lowest ground ball percentage in the Majors at 28% (min. 90 IP).

NOTES

- Grew up an outfielder before transitioning to pitching at the age of 16...less than two years later, signed by the Astros as a 17-year-old international free agent out of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Roman Ocumarez and Leocadio Guevara.
- Received the nickname "El Reptil" (the reptile) during his time in the Astros minor league system, due to his poise, calm demeanor and slow, calculated movements on and off the mound...originally given the name by his High A Manager Morgan Ensberg and his pitching coach at the level, Drew French...Ensberg was a former All-Star player for the Astros, playing for the club from 2000-07.
- Works predominately with his low to mid 90s fastball, which has been nicknamed the invisiball by his teammates...his fastball, which is a four-seamer, has a ride with high spin rates...coupled with his three-quarters armslot, the pitch has strong deception hitters...he follows that pitch up with a slider and a 12-6 curveball, which registers in the top 92nd percentile of spin rates in the Majors.
- Just three years in the Majors, Javier has already been an author of several special moments, none bigger than starting the club's combined no-hitter in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series...the night was extra-special for Javier, who had flown his father, Cecilio, and mother, Trinidad Mieses, in from the Dominican Republic for the game...in talking with his parents the night before the game, Cecilio and Trinidad predicted that their son, Cristian, would throw a no-hitter in Game 4...Javier tossed 6.0 innings of no-hit ball the next day...his mother had seen him pitch before in the United States, but that night was his fathers first time to watch his son pitch in the Majors in person.
- Was originally added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 20, 2019...with exactly 3.000 years of service time, was eligible for arbitration this offseason...the Astros and Javier avoided that process by agreeing on a five-year contract that will keep Javier in an Astros uniform through the 2027 season...the deal was officially signed on Feb. 10, 2023.
- Finished third in the 2020 AL Rookie of the Year voting...led AL rookies in ERA (3.48) and in opponent average (.188, min. 150 batters faced).

Was named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2019, while also being named to the Second Team for MLB Pipeline's Prospect Team of the Year... recorded a 1.74 ERA (22ER/113.2IP) with a careerhigh 170 strikeouts between three levels in the Astros system...led all of minor league baseball in opponent batting average (130) in 2019, which was 31 points ahead of the next best pitcher, Padres top prospect Mackenzie Gore (161)...his 1.74 ERA was the second-best mark in all of minor league baseball, behind only Gore's mark of 1.69.

2022 SEASON:

single postseason.

HOUSTON * ASTROS

- Third-year swingman pitched primarily out of the rotation this season, making 25 starts compared to just five relief appearances...was great in both roles, as a starter posting a 2.81 ERA (40ER/128.1IP) and as a reliever a 1.26 ERA (2ER/14.1IP).
- Was one of most dominant pitchers in AL this year...
 among pitchers with 140+ innings pitched, had lowest opponent batting average in AL (.170)...was 16 points lower than the second-place and the AL Cy Young winner RHP Justin Verlander (.186).
- His .170 opponent batting average this season falls in line with his career opponent batting average of .178...among pitchers to toss 300+ innings over the 2020-22 seasons, Javier has posted the lowest opponent batting average of any pitcher, besting 2nd-place RHP Corbin Burnes (.195)... right-handed hitters are hitting .143 (76x530) against Javier in his career...since 2020, Javier's .143 opponent BA vs. righties is also the lowest in the Majors (min. 420 batters faced).
- Also ranked second in K's per 9.0 (11.74) and fourth in WHIP (0.95) this season...his 11.74 K's per 9.0 ratio trailed only RHP Shohei Ohtani (11.87) (min. 140IP).
- In addition to his high strikeout rate and extremely low opponent batting average, induced pop ups at an elite rate...posted the highest fly ball percentage (56.9%) in the Majors this season (min. 140 IP).
- Was great the entire season, but finished the year in an extremely dominant stretch...over his last six starts, he posted a 1.08 ERA (4ER/33.1IP) with 44 strikeouts, a .127 opponent batting average and a 0.75 WHIP.
- Did not allow a run over his final four starts (23IP) ans his last 25.1 innings...marked the longest active streak in the Majors at the end of the season and ranked as the third-longest in the AL this season... including his two starts this postseason (11.1IP), finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts...Javier allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.

- On June 25 at NYY, pitched 7.0 innings of the Astros combined no-hitter...combined to toss it with RHP Hector Neris (1IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (1IP)... marked the Astros 14th no-hitter in club history and their third combined no-hitter...C Martín Maldonado was behind the plate for the no-hitter.
- During the no-hitter on June 25 at NYY, Javier began a streak of striking out two-or-more batters in an inning for 13 consecutive innings over parts of three starts from June 25-July 6...became just the third player since 1961 to have a streak of 13+ innings, joining Corey Kluber in 2014 and Aroldis Chapman in 2020-21.
- Struck out a career-high 14 hitters in 7.0 innings of dominant work on July 1 vs. LAA...marked the most strikeouts by an Astros pitcher since RHP Gerrit Cole also struck out 14 on Sept. 24, 2019 at SEA.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-hander has pitched in parts of four Major League seasons with Houston, posting a 24-13 record with a 3.74 ERA (142ER/342IP) in 63 appearances (60 starts)...has allowed two or fewer earned runs in 39 of his 60 career starts.
- Has extensive POSTSEASON experience in his career...has pitched in 12 postseason games, making six starts, to a 3-2 record and a 3.72 ERA (15ER/36.1IP)...all three of his wins have come in World Series play, one win in 2019 and two in 2021... is 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA (2ER/14.2IP) in five career appearances in the World Series, including tow starts...shockingly, Urquidy leads all foreign-born players in MLB history with three career wins in the World Series...he's also just the second Mexicanborn starting pitcher to earn a win in the Fall Classic (also, LHP Fernando Valenzuela, 1981).
- Known as an aggressive strike-thrower, since his debut season of 2019, he ranks sixth in the AL in walks per 9.0 (1.89) (min. 325 IP)...in 2022, he ranked ninth in the AL in walks per 9.0 (2.08).
- Is entering his ninth year in the Astros organization... in his minor league career, has gone 18-13 with a 3.27 ERA (123ER/339IP) and 371 strikeouts in 72 games (59 starts)...missed the 2017 season after undergoing Tommy John surgery.

2022 SEASON:

- Won 13 games as an integral member of the Astros starting rotation...reached career highs in most categories, including wins (13), starts (28), innings pitched (164.1) and strikeouts (134).
- The Astros went 17-11 in his 28 starts this season and are 38-24 in his 62 career regular season starts.
- Excelled in day games this season, going 6-1 with a 2.28 ERA (14ER/55.1IP) in nine starts.
- Owned a 44.8% fly ball rate which was the secondhighest in the AL (RHP Triston McKenzie, 48.9%).
- Did an impressive job not issuing walks...posted a 1.17 walks per 9.0 ratio, which ranked 11th in the AL.
- Over his final 16 starts (after June 21) went 8-5 with a 3.21 ERA (36ER/101IP) with 86 strikeouts, a .196 opponent average and a 0.94 WHIP.
- Reached a career high by tossing 8.0 innings on July 8 at OAK.
- Primarily a contact pitcher, had two starts of 10 strikeouts this season, which tied his career high.

NOTES

- Signed by the Astros as a 19-year old, non-drafted free agent out of Mazatlán, Sinaloa, Mexico on March 2, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Carlos Alfonso and Raul Lopez.
- Formerly known as José Luis Hernandez, José began going by the last name of Urquidy, at the start of the 2019 season...Urquidy made the change in honor of his mother, Alma Urquidy, who raised him in Mazatlán, supported his baseball journey and prioritized his school, delaying his professional signing until the age of 19.
- Is one of 11 Mexican-born players to appear in at least one game for the Astros and is one of seven pitchers.
 has pitched more innings (342.0) as an Astro than any other Mexican-born player, besting RHP Aurelio Lopez, who pitched 116.0 innings for the Astros in the 1986– 87 seasons.
- In 2019, became just the second Mexican-born pitcher to earn a win as a starter in the World Series joining LHP Fernando Valenzuela, who did so in 1981...that feat earned him a meeting with Mexican president Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador, who hosted him at his office in Mexico City.
- For the first time in his career, is set to play for Team Mexico in the 2023 World Baseball Classic...forms a formidable top three in Mexico's rotation along with LHP Julio Urias and RHP Taijuan Walker.
- José has a pet pig named Josefa, who was named by combining José and his wife's name, Estefania...Josefa is a favorite of Astros sideline reporter Julia Morales, who featured the pig on an Astros broadcast in the 2021 season...Josefa grew too large to be cared for by José and now lives on a comfortable ranch owned by one of José's friends.
- Was added to the 40-man roster on July 2, 2019, the date of his MLB debut...was left unprotected in the 2018 Rule 5 Draft, but went undrafted...has accumulated just over three years of service time across parts of four Major League seasons...was eligible for arbitration for the first time this offseason and settled with the Astros on a one-year deal for the 2023 season.
- Pitched in one game during the POSTSEASON, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings and giving up just one hit in Game 3 of the WS...struck out four.

2021 SEASON

○ HOUSTON ★ ASTROS

- Known as an aggressive strike-thrower, he ranked third in the AL in walks per 9.0 (1.60) and sixth in strikeouts to walk ratio (4.74) (min. 105 IP).

- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster and started the club's fourth game of the season. Finished the season on a four-game winning streak, spanning his last eight regular season starts.
- Combined to go 2-1 with an 8.22 ERA (7ER/7.2IP) in three POSTSEASON games (two starts).
- Did not pitch in the Division Series, despite being originally scheduled to pitch Game 4, which was delayed due to weather...with the game being pushed back, the Game 4 start went to RHP Lance McCullers Jr. on full rest...instead made his 2021 postseason debut in Game 3 of the LCS at BOS (5ER/1.2IP)...rebounded from his rough LCS start to make two great pitching performances in the World Series, earning wins in both outings.
- In the World Series, started Game 2 vs. ATL (2ER/5IP) to pitch the Astros to a 7-2 victory...came on in relief in Game 5 (0ER/1IP) and picked up the win in relief.

- Upon his return, held the opposition to two runsor-fewer in all five of his starts, which came in September...prior to Urquidy, the last Astros pitcher to begin a season by allowing two runs-or-fewer in each of his first five starts was Gerrit Cole in 2018.
- In September ranked tied for seventh in the American League in ERA and seventh in WHIP (1.01).
- Ended the season with a career-long streak of four consecutive quality starts.

(.225).
- Has been a groundball machine in his Major League career...owns a career 66.6% groundball percentage, which ranks as the lowest percentage in the Majors from 2018-22 (min. 500 IP)...since ground ball percentage started being tracked in 1987, Valdez's career ground ball percentage is the highest ever posted by a starting pitcher... he edged out RHP Brandon Webb (65.1%) in that category.
- Has held left-handed hitters to a .204 average (78x383) and a .594 OPS in the Majors...has allowed just five homers to left-handed hitters in his career.

NOTES

- Was signed by the Astros as a 21-year-old nondrafted free agent out of the Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...at 21-years old, Valdez was five years older than most amateur free agent signees from the Dominican Republic...according to Valdez, other teams had been skeptical of potential arm issues and didn't want to take a chance on him because of his age.
- Originally a position player, Valdez began pitching at the age of 16 and had interest from scouts within a couple years of his conversion...by the age of 21. Valdez was finally seen by the Astros at a workout staged by an independent trainer in Guayacanes, DR, a small town just west of San Pedro de Macaris...after seeing him throw just a handful of pitches, the Astros invited him to throw at their Dominican Academy and promptly signed him following that tryout...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Tom Shafer, Roman Ocumarez and David Brito
- In 2022, used his curveball 29% of the time. registering most of his K's on the breaker (132 of 194), which checks in with a spin rate in the 90th percentile of all MLB curves...he learned the pitch from fellow Dominican and former Brewers prospect Angel Ventura, who pitched in parts of eight minor league seasons (2011-19) with the Brewers...Ventura's curveball was nicknamed "The Ax".
- At times early in his career. Valdez would struggle with his command and subsequently, his body language... in the 2019 offseason, sought the help of Dr. Andy Nunez, who's part of the Astros mental skills group in the Dominican Republic...Nunez specializes in helping the organization's young Latin American players get in the right frame of mind and prepare them for life in the United States...with this help, Valdez adopting the mantra "attitude above everything"...he credits this thought process in his improvements made to his focus, composure and on-field body language.
- Added to the Astros Major League roster in September of 2018...surpassed three years of service time last season, making him eligible for arbitration...avoided the process by agreeing to a one-year deal with the Astros covering the 2023 season...is under club control through 2015.

2022 SEASON IN REVIEW

2022 CLUB NOTES

CHAMPS AGAIN!: Behind a strong pitching staff and timely hits, the Astros secured their second World Series championship in franchise history (also, 2017)...this was the club's fifth World Series appearance and their fourth in the last six seasons.

ASTROS	WORLD SERIES APPS.	RESULT
2005	Astros vs. White Sox	White Sox in 4
2017	Astros vs. Dodgers	Astros in 7
2019	Astros vs. Nationals	Nationals in 7
2021	Astros vs. Braves	Braves in 6
2022	Astros vs. Phillies	Astros in 6

IN THE POSTSEASON: This was the Astros 16th appearance in the postseason in club history in what was the 61st year of the franchise that began in 1962...this season marked the 11th time in club history for the Astros to make the postseason as a division winner, which includes division titles in the NL West (1980, 1986), NL Central (1997-99, 2001) and AL West (2017-19, 2021-22).

SIX STRAIGHT: The Astros have made the postseason in six straight seasons (2017-22), which extended their franchise record, and for the seventh time in the last eight seasons (since 2015)...only the Yankees and Dodgers have also played in the last six postseasons.

SIX YEARS OF DOMINANCE: According to ESPN Stats, the Astros are the first franchise to post a .620 winning percentage and multiple titles over a six-year stretch since the 1953-58 Yankees... the Astros are 541-329 (.622) over the last six seasons (2017-22).

POSTSEASON VETS: Since 2017, the Astros have played more postseason games (86) and have earned more postseason wins (53) than any other club...the Astros are 53-33 in that span with a .616 winning pct. in the postseason.

PITCHING WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS:

The Astros pitching staff posted a 2.29 ERA (32ER/126IP) with 160 K's and a .172 opponent average this postseason...their team ERA was the lowest posted by any team in a single postseason run (min. 13g) since the 1996 Atlanta Braves had a 1.89 ERA in 16 games.

THE BULLPEN'S BEST: In the postseason, the Astros bullpen posted a 0.83 ERA (5ER/54.1IP), while allowing just 23 hits and recording 70 strike-outs...their bullpen ERA was the lowest ever posted by any team in a single postseason run (min. 50 IP), besting the 1996 World Series Champion Yankees, who had a 1.81 ERA (12ER/59.2IP) in 15 games.

FRAMBER'S FALL: LHP Framber Valdez went 3-0 with a 1.44 ERA (4ER/25IP) with three quality starts in four chances this postseason...in his postseason career, Valdez is 7-2 with a 3.41 ERA (26ER/68.2IP) in 13 career postseason games (12 starts)...Valdez's seven career postseason wins rank second in club history, trailing only RHP Justin Verlander (9)...his seven career postseason wins also make him the winningest Dominican-born pitcher in MLB postseason history, surpassing RHP Pedro Martinez (6-4), with his win in Game 6 of the World Series.

POSTSEASON VET: RHP Justin Verlander went 2-0 in four starts this postseason and now has a lifetime 16-11 record and a 3.64 ERA in 35 games (34 starts) in playoff action...as an Astro, Verlander is 9-6 in the postseason and is the franchise leader in career postseason wins...all-time in MLB postseason history, he ranks first in strikeouts and second in wins.

Postseason Wins
1. Andy Pettitte: 19-11
2. Justin Verlander: 16-11
3. John Smoltz: 15-4
3. John Smoltz: 15-4
3. John Smoltz: 199

NOT SO SECRET WEAPON: RHP Cristian Javier worked three times this postseason, going 2-0 with a 0.71 ERA (1ER/12.2IP)...Javier has been a huge weapon for the Astros to use in the postseason in his career, going 4-1 with a 2.20 ERA (8ER/32.2IP) in 14 career postseason games, which includes two starts and nine multi-inning relief appearances...in those games, he's been ulterly dominant, allowing just a .127 (14x110) opponent average, while striking out 48 with 32.2 innings.

FINISHING ON FIRE: Including his two starts this postseason (0ER/11.1IP), RHP Cristian Javier finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts, which dated back to Sept. 14...Javier allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.

THE KING: RHP Ryan Pressly is 11-for-11 in career postseason save opportunities, giving him the most postseason saves in Astros club history... this postseason, Pressly did not allow an earned run in 11.0 innings, recording 13 strikeouts and converting all six save chances successfully.

TRAFFIC: 3B Alex Bregman reached base safely in all 13 of the Astros games this postseason, hitting .294 (15x51) with five doubles, three homers, 11 RBI, a .379 OBP and a .948 OPS.

⊕ HOUSTON*ASTROS < GOLDEN

THE HOT CORNER: 3B Alex Bregman has played six full seasons in the Majors (2017-22) and has advanced to at least the ALCS in every full year, now making four World Series appearances, winning two...he's got 15 career postseason homers (six in the World Series) and 47 career postseason RBI, both Major League records for a third baseman.

THE 100 CLUB: After starting the postseason 0x23 in his first five games, 2B Jose Altuve recovered to hit .314 (11x35) over his last eight games... by doing so, he became the sixth player in MLB history to reach 100 career postseason hits.

ALL-TIME HITS IN THE POSTSEASON

- 1. Derek Jeter 200 T4. Jorge Posada 103
- 2. Bernie Williams 128 T4. Jose Altuve 103
- 3. Manny Ramirez 117 6. Yadier Molina 102

FIRST THINGS FIRST: 1B Yuli Gurriel hit safely in 10 of his 12 postseason games, checking in with a .347 (17x49) average, with two homers and four RBI...Gurriel leads the Majors in postseason hits over the last two years (2021-22) with 36, immediately ahead of 3B Alex Bregman (28)... he now has 87 career postseason hits, which ties him with 1B Albert Pujols for the most postseason hits by a first baseman in MLB history...additionally, Gurriel went the first 11 games and 48 PAs without a strikeout, which tied as the fourth-longest streak in MLB postseason history.

ABOUT THE POSTSEASON ROSTER:

The Astros rostered 29 different players throughout the postseason...a veteran team, the Astros carried nine players with no postseason playing experience into October: RHP Hunter Brown, IF Mauricio Dubón, IF David Hensley, C Korey Lee, IF/OF Trey Mancini, RHP Seth Martinez, RHP Rafael Montero, RHP Hector Neris and SS Jeremy Peña...Lee and Martinez were the only two to not appear in a postseason game this season.

PEÑA'S A FIRST: According to STATS, SS Jeremy Peña is the only player in MLB history to win a Gold Glove, LCS MVP and World Series MVP in their entire career...Peña reached all three in his first MLB season.

ABOUT THE WORLD SERIES: The Astros won the 2022 World Series, defeating the Phillies in six games...it was a true team performance, with contributions from all parts of the roster, including a dominant pitching staff and in particular an untouchable bullpen...the staff allowed just three runs per game, with the relievers working to a 0.84 ERA (2ER/21.1IP)...the Astros pitching staff recorded 71 strikeouts in the series, the most ever in a World Series.

FALL STARS: The Astros were led in the World Series by LHP Framber Valdez (2-0, 1.46 ERA), RHP Bryan Abreu (4g, 0ER/5IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (5g, 0ER/5.2IP), who all were dominant in their outings...at the plate, the club was led by SS Jeremy Peña (.400, 10x25), the series MVP, and postseason stalwart 2B Jose Altuve (.308, 8x26).

ABOUT THE MVP: SS Jeremy Peña won the World Series MVP after leading the club in hits in the series, while hitting safely in all six games at a .400 clip (10x25)...he had game-winning RBI in Game 2 and Game 5, including a three-hit performance in Game 5...by winning the MVP, Peña became the third rookie (first rookie position player) to win World Series MVP, following the Marlins Livan Hernandez in 1997 and the Dodgers Larry Sherry in 1959.

ROOKIE IN NAME ONLY: This World Series featured a pair of rookie shortstops in the Astros SS Jeremy Peña and the Phillies SS Bryson Stott... per Elias, prior to this series, there had never been a World Series game in which both teams started rookie shortstops...additionally, in Game 5, Peña became the first rookie shortstop in Major League history to hit a home run in a World Series game.

THE WINTER CLASSIC: The Astros won the World Series on Nov. 5, the latest date the World Series has been played on in Major League history.

FRAMBER'S FALL CLASSIC: LHP Framber Valdez went 2-0 with a 1.46 ERA (2ER/12.1IP) with 18 strikeouts in his two starts in the World Series...he had nine strikeouts in each start, including a run of five straight strikeouts in Game 6... according to Stats LLC, he joined the Dodgers Sandy Koufax in 1963 Game 1 at NYY as the only lefties to record five consecutive strikeouts in a World Series game.

FIGHTING THROUGH: The Astros had a few players banged up throughout their postseason run, including C Martin Maldonado, who was playing with a sports hernia all October...Maldonado had his injury repaired with surgery on Nov. 15...additionally, 3B Alex Bregman suffered a fractured left index finger on a slide into 2nd base in the 8th inning of Game 6 of the World Series...Bregman will not require surgery.

⊕ HOUSTON *ASTROS - GOLDEN

YORDAN SEALS IT: LF Yordan Alvarez was the hero of the World Series clinching game (Game 6), after he hit a three-run, go-ahead homer in the 6th inning...it was his third game-winning homer in the 6th inning (or later) this postseason, which tied him with Troy Glaus (3 for Anaheim in 2002) for the most in a single Postseason...additionally, Alvarez's homer, which went over the batters eye in center field, measured at 450', the second-longest World Series homer since Statcast data is available (since 2015) behind Atlanta's Freddie Freeman (460) in 2021 Game 5.

A HALL OF FAMERS FIRST: RHP Justin Verlander, who was pitching in his fifth World Series (2006, 2012, 2017, 2019, 2022) this season, earned his first World Series win in Game 5...his Game 5 start was his ninth career start in the Fall Classic... he recorded the win after tossing 5.0 innings of one-run ball.

PINEAPPLE SEASON: Postseason veteran 1B Yuli Gurriel reached a few notable milestones in Game 4 of the World Series, including collecting his 12th career World Series RBI, the most ever by a Cuban-born player...also, he picked up a stolen base at the age of 38 years and 146 days in Game 4, becoming the oldest player to record a steal in the World Series since the Yankees Paul O'Neill (38.247) swiped a bag in Game 3 of the 2001 World Series vs. ARI...

YOUR TURN ROOK: DH David Hensley got two starts in the World Series, in Game 3 and Game 5...Hensley has just 34 career regular season plate appearances under his belt, which all came this season...per Elias, only two other position players in MLB history had fewer career regular season plate appearances when making a start in the World Series: Jack Sheehan (6) for Brooklyn in the 1920 World Series and Buddy Myer (8) for Washington in the 1925 World Series.

NO-NO! NO WAY?: In Game 4 of the World Series, the Astros pitched the third no-hitter in postseason history, the second no-hitter in World Series history and the first combined no-hitter in postseason history...just a few of many notes on the night:

GOLDEN

- RHP Cristian Javier (7IP) was the starter, as he combined with RHP Bryan Abreu (1IP), RHP Rafael Montero (1IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (1IP) to turn in the historic trick.
- the offense scored all of their runs in the 5th, plating five for the franchise's biggest inning in World Series history.
- the other no-hitters in MLB postseason history: Roy Halladay (PHI) in the 2010 NLDS (G1) vs. CIN; Don Larsen (NYY) in the 1956 WS (G5) vs. BKL.
- Javier became the 10th pitcher in World Series history with a no-hit bid of 6-or-more IP and the first since Jerry Koosman (NYM) (6 IP) in the 1969 WS at BAL (G2).
- the starter Javier and the closer Pressly both were also a part of the Astros combined no-hitter back on June 25 at NYY...they are now the first pitchers in MLB history to be a part of two combined no-hitters in their careers.
- C Christian Vázquez was behind the plate for the no-hitter, becoming the second catcher to catch a no-hitter in the World Series, joining C Yogi Berra, who caught Larsen's no-hitter in the 1956 World Series.

BLAST OFF!: In the 1st inning of Game 2 of the World Series, 2B Jose Altuve, SS Jeremy Peña and DH Yordan Alvarez all doubled within a span of four pitches...they became the first teammates in World Series history to start a game with three consecutive extra-base hits.

TUCK'S NIGHT: In Game 1 of the World Series, RF Kyle Tucker became the first player in Astros history with a multi-homer game in the World Series...it also marked the eighth multi-homer game in Astros postseason history and the first since Michael Brantley hit two in Game 4 of the 2020 ALDS vs. OAK, which was played at Dodger Stadium...the previous seven instances for the Astros all came in the Division Series.

SEVEN STRAIGHT TO START: The Astros won their first seven games this postseason, a streak that was snapped in Game 1 of the World Series...it marked the club's longest postseason win streak in franchise history...they became the fifth team in MLB history to begin a postseason with seven straight wins, also the 1976 Reds (7), 2007 Rockies (7), 2014 Royals (8) and 2020 Braves (7).

42 YEARS LATER: Prior to the World Series, the Astros and Phillies had some postseason history, as they faced off against each other in the 1980 NLCS, a five-game series that went the distance in favor of the Phils...it was a heartbreaker in Houston as the loss eliminated the Astros from their first postseason appearance in franchise history... Game 5, which was played at the Astrodome, lasted 10 innings and was one of four extra-inning games that series...the NLCS MVP went to Phillies 2B Manny Trillo, while the Astros best player was CF Terry Puhl, who hit .526 (10x19) with three RBI in the five games.

BACK IN THE ALCS: The Astros have advanced to the ALCS for six straight years, a feat that has only been accomplished by one other club in Major League history, the 1991-99 Braves...that Braves team advanced to every LCS played from 1991-99, excluding the 1994 season, which did not have a postseason.

2019	Astros vs. Yankees	Astros in 6

ABOUT THE ALCS: The Astros swept through the Yankees in the ALCS for the club's first sweep of a seven-game series in club history...the Astros pitching was the reason, as the club posted a 1.50 ERA (6ER/26IP) and allowed just nine runs in the four games...the offense produced 18 runs in the series, including four apiece off the bats of 3B Alex Bregman (.333, 5x15, HR, 4 RBI) and the series MVP SS Jeremy Peña (.353, 6x17, 2 HR, 4 RBI).

WE WANT HOUSTON!: When the Astros eliminated the Yankees in the ALCS, it marked the fourth time for Houston to bounce New York in the postseason...according to MLB.com's Sarah Langs, four times is the most any team has eliminated the Yankees from the postseason in their storied history...Houston dispatched New York in the 2015 Wild Card Game in New York, and in the ALCS in 2017, 2019 and 2022.

MV-PEÑA: Rookie SS Jeremy Peña was named the ALCS MVP...according to Elias, Peña became the fifth rookie to earn MVP honors in an LCS, following Mike Boddicker in 1983, Liván Hernández in 1997, Michael Wacha in 2013 and Randy Arozarena in 2020.

ROOKIE OPENS BUSINESS IN THE ALCS: In Game 1 of the ALCS, SS Jeremy Peña doubled twice and homered, becoming the fifth rookie in MLB history with three extra-base hits in a playoff game, also Carlos Correa (2015 ALDS), Evan Longoria (2008 ALDS), Jacoby Ellsbury (2007 WS) and Jim Gilliam (1953 WS).

BOUT THE ALDS: The Astros swept the Mariners in a hard-fought ALDS series, winning Game 1 by two runs and Games 2 and 3 by one run in each contest...if an MVP was awarded for the series, it would have gone to LF Yordan Alvarez, who hit two homers and posted seven RBI in the series...Alvarez's homers were both game winners, a walkoff shot in Game 1 and a late-inning go-ahead homer in Game 2...the Astros pitching staff was led by their bullpen, which combined to allow just one run in 20.1 innings (0.44 ERA).

DÉJÀ VU: SS Jeremy Peña homered in the 18th inning of Game 3 of the ALDS, which accounted for the only run in the contest...he is now one of only three rookies to hit a homer in extra-innings in the postseason, including fellow Astro Chris Burke, who hit his memorable shot in the 18th inning of Game 4 of the 2005 NLDS, which sent the Astros to the LCS...joining Peña and Burke on that list is the Guardians Oscar Gonzalez, who did so in Game 2 of the 2022 Wild Card Series vs. TB.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY HOUSTON METHODIST

The Astros Hall of Fame presented by Houston Methodist was established in 2019, and resides in Hall of Fame Alley on the main concourse of Minute Maid Park in left-center field. The Astros Hall of Fame was created to give Astros fans an opportunity to celebrate and connect with the greatest individuals and moments in Astros franchise history.

The inaugural Astros Hall of Fame class of 2019 featured 16 individuals: the nine Astros with retired numbers, as well as the members of the Astros Walk of Fame located on Texas Ave. outside Minute Maid Park. Each member of the Astros Hall of Fame has their own custom plaque on display inside Hall of Fame Alley.

In 2023, the Astros will induct another two franchise icons into the Astros Hall of Fame as the Class of 2023: Bill Doran and Bill Brown.

ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY

™ HOUSTON ★ASTROS GOLDE

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium was completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebartin 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt. 45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

⊕ HOUSTON * ASTROS ■ GOLDE

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the major leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1961, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS postseason games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for more than 40 years. His big league on-air career included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It was no coincidence that he was behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appealed to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he broadcast were Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton involved himself in fund-raising activities, and over the years he helped raise over $1.5 million for local charities. Born in Fairfield, lowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

AL HELFER (Astros broadcaster in 1965)

All Helfer, who was big in stature, big in personality and a big league mainstay in broadcast booths across the country for four decades, was named the 2018 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. The burly 6-foot-4 Helfer worked behind a microphone in the Majors for eight different clubs, the Pirates (1933-34), Reds (1935-36), Yankees (1937-38, 1945), Brooklyn Dodgers (1939-41, 1955-57), New York Giants (1945, 1949), Phillies (1958), Colt. 45s (1962) and Athletics (1968-69), and gained a national following as a radio broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System's Game of the Day in the 1950's. For a five-year period between 1950 and '54, he was traveling to a different ballpark six days a week. A rewarding but exhausting assignment, it was due to this Game of the Day exposure – the broadcasts carried by approximately 400 stations in non-MLB markets and around the world by the Armed Forces Radio Network – which Helfer became one of the nation's best-known baseball broadcasters. It was said that his audience reached 80 million at times. In 1962, Helfer was a member of the Colt. 45s original broadcast crew, along with other Astros greats, Gene Elston, Loel Passe and Rene Cardenas.

HARRY KALAS (Astros broadcaster from 1965-1970)

® HOUSTON ★ASTROS ■ GOLDE

Harry Kalas, longtime announcer for the Philadelphia Phillies, was the 2002 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. A native of Naperville, Ill., Kalas graduated from the University of lowa in 1959 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech, Radio, and Television. The affable broadcaster was drafted into the military on graduation day and spent the following two years in Hawaii with the U.S. Army. In 1961, he served as sports director of radio station KGU and also began broadcasting for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders as well as the University of Hawaii. An original member of the Astros broadcast team in 1965, he called games for Houston until 1970. In 1971, he moved to the Phillies broadcast booth, where he shared the microphone with Hall of Fame outfielder Richie Ashburn for 26 seasons. Kalas was honored as Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year 18 times. He also broadcast Big Five basketball and Notre Dame football. Kalas, revered for his uncanny ability to connect with his listeners, whether on radio or television, called more than 5,000 Phillies games. His passion for the game was unsurpassed, and his powerful, soothing voice was a summertime tradition throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Minute Maid Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt. 45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After nine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. ELITE COMPANY

Jeff Bagwell hit 43 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1997. He also hit 42 HR with 30 SB in 1999. Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40HR/30SB seasons. Bagwell is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

Jose Altuve (AL) and Jeff Bagwell (NL) are the only players in franchise history to win Most Valuable Player awards. Bagwell, Carlos Correa (AL) and Yordan Alvarez (AL) are the only players in club history who have captured the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year award. Astros pitchers have captured the Cy Young Award five times, Justin Verlander in 2019 (AL) and 2022 (AL), Dallas Keuchel in 2015 (AL), Roger Clemens in 2004 (NL) and Mike Scott in 1986 (NL). Listed below are all Astros who finished in the top 10 of the MVP voting or received consideration in one year for the circuit's Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the 1st and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The sixman NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched 2.0 perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

The game was the first played indoors and on an artificial surface, as many players got their first look at the Astrodome.

ALL-STAR GAME #57 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 15, 1986

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-yearold All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed 3.0 perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the 2nd. In the 7th inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the Al's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

Valenzuela tied the 1934 record for consecutive strikeouts, setting down (in order): Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jesse Barfield, Whitaker, and Ted Higuera.

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the 1st inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two 1st-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched 2.0 innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run 4th, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the 6th ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final 5.0 innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

○ HOUSTON ★ ASTROS

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardball-faithful also enjoyed another first, Minute Maid Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than 3 million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 55 million visitors during the facility's 22-season tenure.

Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home - the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first three major awards with which the new home of the Astros were honored:

- Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- · National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.
- LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.
- HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball

All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

ARCHITECT: The Architect of Minute Maid Park was HOK Sports Facilities Group, along with Construction Manager Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated the pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on Feb. 27, 2002, by an agreement between the Houston Astros and Enron Corporation.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread. equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design

platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 104 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United States.

Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros Team Store. Each Astros fan who enters Minute Maid Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Minute Maid Park (open 365 days a year) are named after some of the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD: Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier.

HOUSTON * ASTROS

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS: More than 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

CONCESSIONS: Prior to the 2014 season the Astros and their exclusive food and beverage partner, Aramark, unveiled a $1.8 million renovation to Minute Maid Park's main concourse, featuring eight new food and beverage concepts. As part of the transformation to enhance the dining experience, the Astros and Aramark completely overhauled the look and feel of the stands by re-branding each concept with a new name and menu, adding more vibrant signage and lighting, and introducing contemporary color schemes and decor. With the 2014 extension of the Astros and Aramark partnership, future enhancements will continue to incorporate fan feedback and market research into the development and design of new menu concepts and dining options throughout Minute Maid Park. In addition, they will explore new and unique ways to showcase Houston's cuisine and culinary talent, such as local top chefs Jimmy Coatsworth and Scott Strickland who have partnered with Aramark to bring their signature menu items to Minute Maid Park.

TECHNOLOGY: Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Minute Maid Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. Additionally, the Astros have the largest video board in the Major Leagues featuring 1080i display format. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually-operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Prior to the 2023 season, the video boards and ribbon boards in the stadium were replaced with new 4K Samsung LED boards. Ross Video now powers the control room and integration allowing the Astros to provide fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions.

RENOVATIONS: Prior to the 2017 sesaon, the Astros made major renovations to the center field area. The center field area is now home to new concessions including fan-favorites Shake Shack, Torchy's Tacos and Pluckers, the Lexus Club, retail and more. Following the 2019 season, the Houston Astros renovated the suite level to create the Michelob Ultra Bar. In addition, a new club, Gallagher Club, was added down the left field line to hold up to 120 people.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.

If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.

The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.

If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.

- > The roof may only open once during a game.
- > The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
- > The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- > The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.
